4.9 The Advisory Council shall prescribe the procedure for processing of membership applications, appoint or elect members of a Membership Committee, Board of Censors or other body to process membership applications, appoint or elect a Chairman of the Membership Committee or Chief Censor to adjudicate on and present applications for membership to the Advisory Council for approval;

4.10 All Fellows, MEMBERS, and Associate Members, whether Foundation members or not, shall have voting rights and be eligible for election to the Advisory Council;
4.11 Any member having the grade of Honorary Fellow, Honorary Member, Fellow, Member, or Associate Member, may use the following initials or post-nominals after their name to indicate membership of the College, i.e. F.A.C.T.M. (Hon) or FACTM (Hon), M.A.C.T.M. (Hon) or MACTM (Hon), F.A.C.T.M. or FACTM, M.A.C.T.M. or MACTM, and A.A.C.T.M. or AACTM;

4.12 The Honorary Secretary shall, on behalf of the College keep and maintain a register of members in accordance with this Constitution and the register shall be so kept and maintained with the administrative records of the College. Branches may be permitted by the Advisory Council to maintain separate registers, which shall be reconciled with the national register of members, from time-to-time, as deemed necessary by the Advisory Council;

4.13 As soon as practicable, upon admission of a member, written notice shall be given to that person and request will be made for any outstanding fees, and a copy of the College's Constitution will be forwarded to that member;

4.14 A member shall not have voting rights nor any other privileges of membership until payment of outstanding fees.

4.15 A member of one grade of membership may make an application for upgrading of their membership status on the application form prescribed by the Advisory Council. The applicant shall pay a Reclassification Fee equivalent to the Application Fee, determined by the Advisory Council; applications for upgrading of membership shall be determined in the same manner as applications for conferral of membership.

4.16 A person whose membership has been rejected or whose membership has been terminated may within one (1) month of receiving notification thereof lodge with the Honorary Secretary written notice of his/her intention to appeal against the decision of the Advisory Council.

4.17 Upon receipt of a notification of intention to appeal against rejection or termination of membership the Honorary Secretary shall convene within three (3) months of receipt by him/her of such notice, a general meeting to determine the appeal. At any such meeting the applicant shall be given the opportunity to fully present his/her case and the Advisory Council or those members thereof who rejected the application for membership or terminated the membership subsequently shall likewise have the opportunity of presenting its or their case. The appeal shall be determined by the vote of the members present at such a meeting.
4.18 Where a person whose application is rejected does not appeal against the decision of the Advisory Council within the time prescribed by these rules or so appeals but the appeal is unsuccessful, the Honorary Secretary shall forthwith refund the amount of any fee paid.

5. MEMBERSHIP FEES AND SUBSCRIPTIONS

5.1 The Application Fee, Reclassification Fee, Annual Subscription and Life Membership Subscription payable by members of the College shall be such amount as the Advisory Council shall from time-to-time prescribe;

5.2 All annual subscriptions and all pro-rata Life Membership subscriptions shall become due and payable in advance on the first business day of each financial year.

5.3 If the subscription of a member shall remain unpaid for a period of two months after it becomes due, then the member may after a notice of default as has been sent to him by the Honorary Secretary or Honorary Treasurer of the College have membership suspended until all arrears have been paid.

5.4 A financial member at any material time is a member who is not then indebted to the organisation in respect of annual subscription or levy or other payment whatsoever.

5.5 Only those members who are financial members at the time shall be entitled, subject to the lawful procedure of the meeting, to speak or vote upon any motion at any general meeting of the organisation.

6. BRANCHES

6.1 Members resident within a State or Territory of Australia, or within another country, may, with the consent of the Advisory Council establish a Branch of the College in that State or Territory or other country provided that no such application shall be approved unless the application is supported by the minimum number of members prescribed by the Advisory Council from time to time as being necessary to establish a Branch.

6.2 Where a Branch is established each member of the College whose address in the Register of Members is within the area of a Branch shall be a member of that branch for so long as the member's address remains within the area of that Branch. No member shall be a member of more than one branch at any one time;
6.3 Branches shall make rules for their area of administration, provided that those rules:

(a) do not conflict with the objects of the College, or any other provision of this Constitution;

(b) are approved by the Advisory Council; and

(c) comply with any by-laws relating to Branches.

6.4 Members of a Branch may establish chapters in the prescribed manner and in accordance with any by-laws relating to chapters and branches.

7. STANDING COMMITTEES AND SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS AND FACULTIES

7.1 Members of the College may, with the consent of the Advisory Council, establish special interest groups or standing committees, and faculties of the College;

7.2 The Council may make by-laws prescribing the conditions of eligibility for membership of special interest groups, standing committees and faculties and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the number of such groups to which a member may belong at any one time;

7.3 Special interest groups and standing committees and faculties shall make rules for their governance, provided that those rules:

(a) do not conflict with the objects of the College or with any other provision in this Constitution;

(b) are approved by the Advisory Council; and

(c) comply with any by-laws relating to special interest groups, standing committees, and faculties.
8. EXECUTIVE BOARD

8.1 The College shall have an Executive Board comprising the President, the Vice President, the Honorary Secretary, the Honorary Treasurer, the Dean of Faculty of Travel Medicine and the Dean of Faculty of Expedition and Wilderness Medicine together with either the Immediate Past President or the President Elect. The Executive Officer shall also be an ex-officio non-voting member of the Executive Board;

8.2 Apart from the President, Immediate Past President and the Executive Officer, all members of the Executive Board shall be elected by, and from among, the members of the College in the prescribed manner and, subject to these rules, shall hold office for the time prescribed in the Constitution;

8.3 The President shall hold office for a period of two years;

8.4 A person who has held office as President shall, for a period of one year after expiration of this term, hold office as the Immediate Past President;

8.5 At the end of the first year in office of the President, members of the College shall at the Annual General Meeting of the College, elect a President Elect who will succeed the President at the end of the latter’s second year in office;

8.6 The Honorary Secretary and the Honorary Treasurer shall be elected by members of the College at the Annual General Meeting on alternate years and shall each serve for a period of two years;

8.7 The Vice-President, Honorary Secretary and Honorary Treasurer, may be re-elected to that office upon the expiration of his/her term of office for a further term of twenty-four (24) months, but no member of the Executive Board shall be eligible for more than three (3) consecutive terms of office in the same office bearer position, and shall not be eligible for any further re-election to that office for one term or twenty-four (24) months, whichever is longer;

8.8 In the case of the President, while a person may be elected as President more than once, these terms shall not be consecutive, requiring a period of one term or twenty-four (24) months before re-election;

8.9 The office of a member of the Executive Board shall become vacant if he or she:

(a) resigns the office in writing;

(b) ceases to be a financial member of the College;
(c) becomes of unsound mind; or

(d) becomes bankrupt,

(e) becomes deceased, or

(f) is removed from office at a general meeting.

and the Executive Board shall appoint a member of the College to fill that office for the balance of the term of office of the previous officer;

8.10 The President shall be the spokesperson for the College and shall, unless absent, chair the Annual General Meeting, General Meetings, meetings of the Advisory Council and meetings of the Executive Board;

8.11 In the absence of the President, the Vice President shall be the spokesperson for the College and chair meetings of the College. In the absence of both the President and Vice President, an Executive Board member elected by the Executive Board shall chair meetings of the College;

8.12 The Honorary Secretary shall give notice of meetings and keep the records of the College membership and business and ensure adherence to the Rules and by-laws of the College. Further the Honorary Secretary shall cause full and accurate minutes of all questions, matters, resolutions and other proceedings of every Executive Board Meeting, Advisory Council Meeting and general meeting to be entered in a book to be open for inspection at all reasonable times by any financial member who previously applies to the Honorary Secretary for that inspection. For the purposes of ensuring the accuracy of the recording of such minutes, the minutes of every Executive Board meeting shall be signed by the Chair of that meeting or the Chair of the next succeeding Executive Board meeting verifying their accuracy. Similarly, the minutes of every general meeting shall be signed by the Chair of that meeting or the Chair of the next succeeding general meeting: Provided that the minutes of any annual general meeting shall be signed by the Chair of that meeting of the Chair of the next succeeding general meeting or annual general meeting.

8.13 The Honorary Treasurer shall be responsible for, and advise on, the financial management and financial policy of the College;

8.14 The Immediate Past-President and President Elect shall alternately, and ex officio, be members of the Executive Board with full voting rights. The Past President shall serve during the first year in office of the new President while the President Elect shall serve in the last year of office of the President;
8.15 The Executive Officer, if any, shall be responsible to the Executive Board for the management of the Secretariat and for other such duties as may be set out in this Constitution, prescribed in any by-laws or specified by resolution of the Executive Board but shall not have voting rights;

8.16 The Executive Board shall, subject to the direction of the Advisory Council, manage the affairs of the College and represent the Advisory Council and the College in all matters related to the College.

8.17 In the event of a motion being proposed for removal from office of a member of the Executive Board at a general meeting, the member shall be given the opportunity to fully present his/her case and the question of removal shall be determined by the vote of the members present at such a general meeting, or by proxy.

8.18 There shall be no appeal from a decision to remove a member from the Executive Board taken at a general meeting but notice of the proposal to remove the member from the Executive Board shall be given at the same time as notice of the general meeting is given to all members.

8.20 These changes to Section 8 of the “Constitution of the Australasian College of Tropical Medicine Incorporated – 10th January 1994”, shall take effect from the Election of Office Bearers, ACTM AGM 1998/99.

9. ADVISORY COUNCIL

9.1 The College shall have a Council comprising:

(a) the members, for the time being, of the Executive Board;

(b) seven (7) Councillors elected by and from among the members of the College at each Annual General Meeting. Each Councillor shall hold office until the next Annual General Meeting. Each Councillor may be re-elected to that office upon the expiration of his term of office for a further term, but shall not be eligible for more than five (5) consecutive terms of office and shall not be eligible for any further re-election to that office for one term or twelve (12) months, whichever is longer;

12.4 The Advisory Council shall appoint such members of the College as it sees fit to membership of an Editorial Board to assist and advise the Editor.

13. COMMON SEAL

13.1 The seal of the College shall be in the form of a rubber stamp, foil seal or other form approved by the Executive Board; and the design of the seal of the College shall be approved by the Executive Board;

13.2 The Common Seal shall be used only by the authority of the Executive Board and every instrument to which the Seal is affixed shall be signed by two (2) members of the Executive Board as evidence of that authority.

13.3 The Honorary Secretary shall keep a record of all documents to which the Seal is affixed;

13.4 The Advisory Council shall from time-to-time determine rules for the signature and execution of documents and papers on behalf of the College.
14. CODE OF ETHICS

14.1 All members of the Australasian College of Tropical Medicine, by virtue of their acceptance of membership of the College are bound by the Code of Ethics. Any member who breaks the Code of Ethics may be expelled from the College, and, if required by the Advisory Council, shall surrender their certificate of membership;
14.2 The following is the Code of Ethics of the College:

(a) members must be responsible for ethical and professional conduct in relation to patients, clients, employees, associates, the public and research;

(b) members must be responsible for professional competence in the performance of all their professional activities;

(c) members shall protect the professional interests, reputation and good name of the College and its members, or of any deserving professional organization and its members which are also involved in tropical medicine or its associated disciplines;

(d) members shall seek to continue their professional development, shall actively assist in the professional development of new and existing members of the College, and shall encourage the development of expertise among non-members working in tropical medicine or its associated disciplines.

15. EXPULSION

15.1 Subject to this Rule, the Executive Board may expel a member from the College if, in the opinion of the Executive Board, the member has been guilty of conduct detrimental to the interests of the College;

15.2 Where the Executive Board expels a member from the College, the Executive Officer shall, without undue delay, cause to be served on the member a notice in writing:

(a) stating that the Executive Board has expelled the member;

(b) specifying the grounds for expulsion; and

(c) informing the member that if he or she so desires, he/she may, within fourteen (14) days after the service of the notice on him/her, appeal against the expulsion as provided in sub-rule 15.4.

15.3 The expulsion of a member pursuant to sub-rule 15.1 hereof does not take effect:

(a) until the expiration of fourteen (14) days after the service on the member of a notice under sub-rule 15.2; or

(b) if the member un成功fully exercises his or her right of appeal under sub-rule 15.4, until the conclusion of the general meeting convened to hear the appeal, whichever is the later date, whereupon the Honorary Secretary shall forthwith remove the name of the member for the Register of Members and the member shall cease to be a member.

15.4 A member on whom a notice under sub-rule 15.2 is served may appeal against the expulsion to a General Meeting by delivering, or sending by post, to the Executive Officer, within fourteen (14) days after the service of that notice, a requisition in writing demanding the convening of such a meeting for the purpose of hearing his/her appeal;

15.5 Upon receipt of a requisition under sub-rule 15.4 the Executive Officer shall forthwith notify the Executive Board of its receipt and the Executive Board shall thereupon cause a general meeting of members to be held within sixty (60) days after the date on which the requisition is received by the Executive Officer;

15.6 At a general meeting convened for the purpose of this Rule:

(a) no business other than the question of the expulsion shall be transacted;

(b) the Executive Board shall place before the meeting details of the grounds of the expulsion and the Executive Board's reasons for the expulsion;

(c) the expelled member shall be given an opportunity to be heard; and

(d) the members present shall vote by secret ballot on the question whether the expulsion should be cancelled or confirmed.
16. GENERAL MEETINGS

16.1 The Honorary Secretary or Executive Officer shall convene a General Meeting of the College when directed to do so by the Executive Board or the Advisory Council;

16.2 The Honorary Secretary or Executive Officer shall notify the members of the place, day and time for the holding of the meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted thereat not less than fourteen (14) days before the date of the meeting;

16.3 No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of twenty (20) members is present at the commencement of such business;

16.4a Subject to paragraph 16.4(b) hereof and unless otherwise provided for in these rules all questions arising at a General Meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes on a show of hands and the declaration of the person chairing the meeting that a resolution has been carried by a particular majority or lost, shall be conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number of votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

16.4b Each member or holder of a proxy in attendance at a general meeting shall have the right to demand a poll on any question.
